CONGRESS MAKES BIG APPROPRIATIONS FOR CALIFORNIA

Congressmen Duncan McKinlay, McLachlain, Needham, Knowland and Senators Perkins and Flint Get About Everything to be Had for Their State

A dispatch from Washington under date of March 4th says that California fared well at the hands of the sixty-first Congress before it came to a close at noon on that day.

Notwithstanding Senators Flint and Congressman McKinlay, Engelb ight, and McLachlan have been retired and will be succeeded by new and untried men, we doubt if their equals will be found in the halls of Congress for many a day, and most certainly not by those selected by the people at the election last fall. However, the reformers got what they wanted and in consequence California will have nothing much to boast about in the next Congress.

The appropriations secured by our Senators and Congressmen will amount in the aggregate $3,400,000 as follows:

Pinole Shoals—$76,000

Mare Island Dredging—$100,000

Humboldt Bay—$717,400.

Oakland Harbor Improvements—$150,000.

Los Angeles Harbor Improvements—$270,000.

Mokelumne River Maintenance—$5,000.

Napa River and Petaluma Creek Maintenance—$5,000.

Sacramento River and Feather River—$25,000.

San Joaquin River Improvement—$25,000.

Surveys of Cresent City Harbor, Newport, Richmond and Santa Barbara Harbors; San Joaquin River; Fremont Channel and McLeod Lake; Arms of Stockton Channel; Mokelumne River above Gait-New Hope Bridge and San Rafael Creek.

Sacramento Public Building—$15,000,

Berkeley Public Building—$45,000.

Chico Public Building—$20,000.

Hanford Public Building—$17,000.

Bakersfield Public Building—$20,000.

Long Beach Public Building—$40,000.

San Bernardino Public Building—$20,000.

Santa Barbara Public Building—$2 ,000.

Santa Cruz Public Building—$20,000.

Generous appropriations maintenance Mare Island Yard. Enactments of advantage in building and maintaining Navy on Pacific Coast.

Relief of indicators on oil and gas lands from Yard decision.

Good appropriations on agricultural bill that will further experiment work in California.

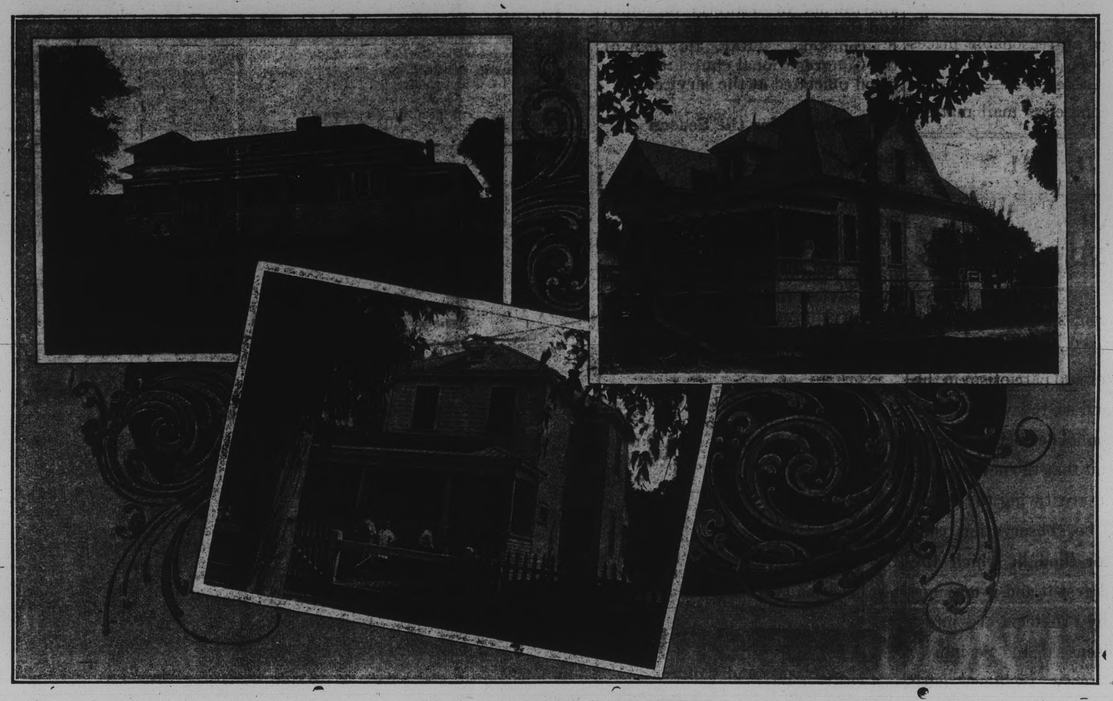
Ditto on appropriations for geological survey work.

Constructing collier at Mare Island Navy Yard—$1,200,000.

The Farmers' Packing house was completely destroyed by fire Friday night at Geyserville. The loss is about $5,000, with $2,000 insurance.

The cause of the fire is unknown. The building was in flames when discovered. There was no fruit in the warehouse, but a quantity of boxes and box shooks were destroyed.

SOME HOMES THAT ARE TYPICAL OF THE NEW SONOMA.



Group of Broadway Residences

That Sonoma is attracting attention as a desirable abiding place for families and particularly those in quest of health and pleasant surroundings no better evidence is wanting than the home building activity that has characterized the town the past few years.

Evidence of this activity and civic pride is to be observed on all the principal residence streets of Sonoma, where many attractive and costly homes have been built the past few years. These will compare favorably with those of any community in the State. Five years ago the Weems tract on Broadway was put upon the market and since that time many beautiful residences have taken the place of a tract of land that had been used for farming and pasturage purposes for fifty years.

The sale and improvement of the Weems tract proved so successful that other holdings were put upon the market to encourage home building here and were readily disposed of to desirable purchases. Among these tracts were the Duhring, Chase, Pooler and the Wagner-Clements suburban acre-tract on Broadway. These for the most part have been sold out and many beautiful homes erected upon them.

In order to meet the increased requirements for building lots in this city still other tracts have lately been surveyed and put on the market for those who desire a town residence. Among these is the Breitenbach place on the south side of Napa street a short distance east of the grammar school, containing 25 acres. The offerings on this tract, which have but recently been put upon the market, are meeting with favor and quite a number of them have already been disposed of to settlers.

There is a reason for this marked activity of home building in this city. It is this: Its climate is unsurpassed, it nestles in the heart of one of the prettiest valleys in all California and is one of the healthiest towns in the United States, and—well, it has a Woman Club that does things.

NEW FISH AND GAME LAW GIVE SPORTSMEN A FAIR DEAL

A Bill Which Will Undoubtedly Pass Was Introduced in the Assembly Saturday---It Divides the State Into Six Sections

The fool Legislature in session at Sacramento, which has done little else the past month except to pass bills for political purposes and to legislate out of office northern California politicians for the purpose of creating places for the southern California henchmen of Boss Lisner of Los Angeles, may yet accomplish something for the people, whom they were sent to the State Capital to represent, by the passage of several measures which are now before the upper and lower houses of the Legislature.

Among these may be mentioned the bill introduced in the Assembly the other day by Assemblyman Walter Griffiths, chairman of the Fish and Game Committee.

No action was taken upon the bill Saturday, the day it was introduced, as the Assembly was too busy in taking a long range pot shot with a blunderbuss at Senators Perkins and Flint for voting to seat Lorimer of Illinois in the United States Senate.

However, the bill has been received with favor by both Senators and Assemblymen in Sacramento and will undoubtedly become a law It is a substitute for numerous bills presented by individual members, being a composite of fourteen separate bills relating to the open and closed season for hunting birds and animals and regulating the bag limit.

The bill makes the open season for deer from August 15th to November 1st.

Wild Ducks or Ibis Oct. 15th to March 1st.

Snipe, Plover, Curlew, Oct. 15th to Feb. 15th.

Valley Quail. Oct. 15th to Feb. 15th.

Mountain Quail, Grouse and Sage Hen, Sep. 15th to Dec. 1st.

Cotton Tail Rabbits, July 31 to Feb. 1st.

Doves, July 15th to Oct. 1st.

Black Sea Brant, Nov. 1st to Mareh 15th.

Rail, Nov. 1st to Dec. 1st.

The bag limit for game is fixed as follows:

Ducks, black sea brant, twenty in one day; desert or valley quail, curlew, ibis, plover, rail or doves, twenty in one day; mountain quail, ten; grouse, 4; sage hen 4; cotton tail rabbits, fifteen; and any one who between sunrise of one Sunday and sunrise of the following Sunday takes or kills more than fifty ducks or black sea brant will be guilty of a misdemeanor.

It will also be a misdemeanor for a person to use more than one dog for the tracking of deer and the same penalty is impossed upon any person who hunts or fishes between one-half hour after sunset and one-half hour before sunrise. This will not apply, however, to the shooting or killing of any birds found destroying crops.

The passage of the bill recently dividing the State into game districts has led the committee to recommend different seasons in the different districts. These districts are as follows:

First District.—Del Norte, Siskiyou, Modoc, Lassen, Shasta, Trinity, Humbolt and Tehama counties.

Second Distriet. — Mendocino, Glenn, Colusa, Lake, Sonoma, Napa, Yolo, Solano, and Marin counties.

Third District. - Plumas, Butte, Sierra, Yuba, Sutter, Nevada, Placer, El Dorado, Sacramento, Amador, Alpine, Calaveras, Tuolumne, Mariposa and Mono counties.

Fourth District.—San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Merced, Madera, Fresno, Kings, Tulare and Kern counties.

Fifth District.—Contra Costa, Alameda, San Francisco, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz, San Benito, Monterey and San Luis Obispo counties.

Sixth District.—Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Diego, Imperial, Riverside, San Bernardino and Inyo counties.

The bill provides that in the first and sixth districts the season for wild ducks and shore birds shall be from October 1st to March 1st, and the quail season shall be from October 15th to November 15th. In districts four and six the dove season is to be from September 1st to Nov. 1st, and in two, four and five deer season to be from July 1st to September 1st, while in district six the deer season is fixed at August 15th to September 15th.

WHAT A SOCIALIST CALENDAR REVEALS AND SUGGESTS

THE newspapers are parsimonious when it comes to giving much space to Socialism, principally because the subject is not calculated to do any good for the preservation of law and order and patriotism in the country. It is regarded as a dangerous factor and so the wise editor refrains from giving it space unless touching upon its pernicious phases and hopeless fallacies. The Socialist will tell you that the newspapers are afraid of the inroads Socialism is making and are trying to retard a fast growing movement. However that may be, observation confirms one's belief that Socialism gives food for thought which the masses are craving. They may not be able to digest it and it may not be the proper kind, but men and women beset by problems are interested in the exploitation of the vital subjects discussed by Socialists. No other gossip of peoples, no party, has so directly reckoned with this growing demand of the questioning masses. Hence the following Socialism has.

To illustrate the trend of Socialistic thought, the following excerpts from a recent calendar are given with the comment each suggests:

First subject, "The Employer and Employee," being a discussion of this much debated question from the standpoint of the employee who seeks the fruits of his labor and would curtail the employers opportunity to make unlimited profit.

Labor Unions, "Industrial Walkers of the World," are offshoots of this problem's wranglers.

The Legislature discusses phases of it and legislates for shorter hours and better conditions in factory and workshop.

The government has taken up the "Employer's Liability Act."

That it is a vital problem in this country to-day is apparent, but the Socialist believe that the law-makers' tinkering will not help matters. He would readjust the whole social scheme but out of the same grade of material as in the present social fabric, the incongruity of which calls forth a smile.

Second, "A Criticism of Socialism," being a refutation of some of the views attributed to it and not a conscientious analysis of its weaknesses. Healthy self-criticism strengthens, but the kind of criticism which these people need, calls for the substitution of some better material than they posess in their ranks before desired ends are accomplished. Witness the failure of many colonies formed with Socialism as their working basis. The "comrade" idea went to pieces on the rocks of self-interest.

Third, "Society and the Individual," emphazing society's duty to the individual, for it is with society that the Socialist quarrels.

"Maudlin Philanthrophy" characterizes the efforts of sentimentalists to give an artificial lift to the unfit.

Fourth, "Why the Slums," being a consideration of a social evil deemed by many a necessary one—necessary until men themselves are different.

Then follows, Fifth, "A Discussion of Marriage as an Institution," almost iconoclastic in its suggestiveness and not calculated to strengthen the cause of Socialism.

Sixth, "The Line of Least Resistance," which may treat of the natural tendency to follow political bosses and accounts for the present system Socialism decries.

All such discussions, sometimes harangues, sometimes sane lectures, is the sop upon which the followers of Sociailsm are fed.

THE present Legislature is composed of wise guys. Its members have abolished hanging and by so doing will have saved their own necks when they return home to give an account of themselves to their constituents.

The Hay Market

Somers & Co. of San Francisco, in reporting the condition of the hay market for the week ending March 7th, say:

"The small amount of hay which we received during the week, 1929 tons, has been a material relief to the former badly congested market. During the few weeks previous about 3500 tons was marketed weekly and these heavy shipments in the face of a very dull demand disturbed seriously the normal market conditions. Dealers and consumers have been kept so well supplied with feed that the diminution in receipts has had no effect on values. It would take several weeks of very light receipts to strengthen the market but in our opinion the continuance of light shipments will not occur on account of the fact that so much hay is on storage in the country, holders being anxious to sell and that prospects for a good yield during the coming season are at present excellent. The low-lands in some districts may have had too much water but this is incidental and not a material factor in affecting the general crop.

Although the demand for hay in the bay section is exceedingly dull and has been for some time, yet in some country districts there is a very fair trade for hay, but only only at low figures can this movement continue.

"Afalfa is being sold quite freely in country districts also, the long period of cold, wet weather occasioning extensive feeding."

Assessor's Notice —TO— Property Owners.

All taxpayers are required by the Constitution to make and deliver to the County Assessor annually a statement under oath, setting forth specifically all the real and personal property owned by such person, or in his possession, or under his control, at 12 o'clock M. on the first Monday in March.

Note—The assessment of property throughout the State of California is made during the months of March, April, May and June, and the law requires that each individual property holder file a statement with the assessor or his deputy during these months.

Mortgages Not Assessable.

The Attorney General holds that "from this time forth all mortgages, no matter when made nor what their terms, are exempt from taxation."

The Constitutional Amendment which was adopted at the last general election, provided that a mortgage or deed of trust "shall not be considered property subject to taxation," and this operates as a decree by the people that the securities mentioned shall not hereafter constitute taxable property. Official duties in matters of taxation cannot be imposed or regulated by private contract."

"Nevertheless, the lien of taxes for mortgages assessed in 1910, before the constitution was amended, is not released, and parties now charged with taxes on the tax rolls must pay the same."

PERSONAL PROPERTY.

The Assessor must collect the taxes on all personal property when in his opinion said taxes are not a lien upon the real property sufficient to secure the payment of the taxes. The Assessor or his deputy must collect such taxes at the time of making the assessment.

State Poll and Road Poll Tax

Are due on demand from all persons liable to same, between the 1st Monday in March and the 1st Monday in August. The amount is $2 each. If not paid by the 1st Monday in August, $1 is added and the amount becomes $3 each.

All persons owning real estate that has heretofore been assessed to the wrong name, or those who have purchased real estate within the past year, are requested to appear with their deeds at the Assessor's office or to the deputies, during the months of March, April and May, and have the proper changes made.

Will those having fruit trees or vines kindly enumerate the same, giving number and age of each kind, so as to save time when the deputy assessor calls.

Any desired information relative to assessments will be furnished upon application at the county assessor's office, court house, Santa Rosa.

FRANK E. DOWD,
County Assessor.

Municipal Rock Crushing Plant

A. L. Young of San Francisco, an expert on rock-crushing plants and quarries, was in town Thursday and in company with Mayor Cummings and his fellow City Trustees visited the city quarries on the cemetery tract. Mr. Young pronounced the stone in the quarries the finest in the world for road building. The quarries are accessible, being less than a quarter of a mile from the center of town and can be operated with great economy by the city.

No action has as yet been taken by the Trustees in the matter, but there is no doubt the crusher will be installed the coming spring.

STORM THIS WEEK A RECORD BREAKER

A Phenomenal Downpour Which Caused Every Stream in Sonoma Valley to Overflow

The big storm which set in last month has prevailed with almost unabated fury all week. It reached its climax Monday and Tuesday, when every stream in the valley was running bank full and the entire southern part of the valley south of Schellville was converted into a vast inland sea.

Washouts occurred on both the Northwestern and Southern Pacific railroads and all passenger trains from San Francisco were tied up for several hours Monday night, and on Tuesday morning the Southern Pacific passenger train en route from Santa Rosa to San Francisco was unable to make the run owing to a big washout between El Verano and Schellville.

Several of the county bridges spanning Sonoma and other creeks in this valley were in imminent danger of being washed away but fortunately there was a cessation of the downpour for a short time on Monday night, the water receded somewhat and the bridges were miraculously saved.

Considerable damage is reported in various parts of the valley from the freshet, which was the heaviest ever known in this section.

The rainfall has been a record breaker since it commenced storming on January 9th, up to which period the precipitation had been so slight that a drouth was feared in this valley, where a dry season has yet to be recorded. The precipitation since the above date has been over twenty inches, and with the exception of one week's respite it has stormed incessantly and the flood gates of heaven are still ajar.

MORTGAGES NO LONGER TAXABLE

Assessor Dowd and His Force of Deputies Will Eliminate Them From New Roll.

County Assessor Frank E. Dowd and his efficient force of deputies, who have had years of experience, commenced the assessment of property valuations last Monday. The assessment will continue for the next three months and will close on June 30th.

Assessor Dowd in his notice to property owners, published elsewhere in these columns, announces that henceforth mortgages are not assessable for taxation purposes. Attorney General Webb has furnished him, together with other county assessors in the State, with a written opinion to that effect.

At the election last November the people adopted a constitutional amendment abolishing the mortgage tax. As the time drew near for making the assessment some of the assessors raised the question as to whether mortgages made while the old mortgage tax provision was in effect were still taxable. The Attorney General settled that question in the written opinion sent to the assessors by saying there is no longer any authority for taxing mortgages and that the borrower can adjust with the lender the rate of interes, he shall hereafter pay.

Montgomery Akers, the deputy for Sonoma and Glen Ellen Townships, will wait upon property owners in this section and those having fruit trees or vines will greatly facilitate him in his duties and save time by preparing in advance of his visit a slip enumerating them together with the age of each kind.

Lu Etta Smith

One reads much in the papers about the doings of Dr. Burke, convicted of an attempt to murder Lu Etta Smith and her blue-eyed, chubby, innocent babe, but the victims of his diabolical plot seem to have been forgotten. An enterprising reporter of one of our county papers, however, has this to say of the unfortunate woman and her child:

"At the home of Rev. and Mrs. William E File, in the Cragmont hills, Miss Lu Etta Smith, principal witness in the trial of Willard P. Rurke in Santa Rosa, has found refuge, after the turmoil involving the dynamiting of the tent occupied by herself and child at Burke's sanitarium, the arrest of Dr. Burke, her flight to Japan and the subsequent trial.

"She arrived with her young son last week from Santa Rosa, and will make her home indefinitely with the Files, with whom she resided after the dynamiting

"She declined to be seen when a reporter called at the File home but Mrs. File stated that her friend and the child would remain here indefinitely.

"During the time of the trial of Dr. Burke and pending the hearing of the case against him in court the county of Sonoma paid all the expenses of Miss Smith. Now she has practically no one to whom she can turn, and Rev. and Mrs. File have offered to care for her for a time.

Birthday Party

A party was tendered Miss Anita Breitenbach on Friday night of last week in honor of her twentieth birthday anniversary. Among those who took a leading part in the affair were Mrs. J. E. Poppe, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hunter and a number of others prominent in Rebekah Lodge affairs. The party was held at the home of the Hunters on First-street East. Covers were laid for twenty-five and a delicious spread was served by the ladies. Those present were:

Misses Alice Rubke, Estelle Bill, Louise Weber, Grace McGimsey, Gertrude Breitenbach, Doreles and Dorothy Breitenbach and Anita Breitenbach, Mesdames Lutgens, Hunter, Hanger, Wagnon, Pauli, Poppe, Breitenbach, Jansen, Entelman, and Messrs. Jansen, Wagnon, E. Gottenberg, Hunter, R. Pauli, G. Rubke and W. Dunn.

Suit to Quiet Title

E. T. Casson filed suit in the Superior Court on Tuesday against Archibald Tennent and others to quiet title to a piece of land in this city, which is clouded with an ancient tax title. The City of Sonoma is also made a defendant in the suit, which is simply brought to perfect the title to the property.

The Lions and the Roses.

"An admirer in my younger days," said a woman lion tamer, "once sent me a bouquet of red roses, and I wore them in the ring to do my act. They came near doing for me. I had got my eight lions arranged in their pyramid when the lion at the top saw the red roses in my corsage. He mistook them for meat—lions have poor sight—and down he leaped. He came for me open mouthed. Though I fired a blank cartridge in his face, he made with his paw a sweep at the roses that ripped me open from chin to waist. The other lions bounded forward. They weren't angry. They were hungry. I had intelligence enough to perceive that, and just as they were leaping on me I tore off my roses and threw them across the ring. The big brutes left me at once, and while they sniffed the roses with disappointed growls I staggered out of the iron door. I was young at the time, young and light headed, or I'd have known better than to wear anything red among hungry and nearsighted lions."—Buffalo Express.

A Coin In the Sea.

A coin dropped into the sea will sink to the bottom, however deep it is, owing to the fact that the metal is heavier than the volume of water it displaces. It is a common but mistaken notion that the density of the sea increases with its depth and consequent pressure, as does the density of the atmosphere, which we all know is greatest at the earth's surface. The air, however, like all gases, is elastic and when under pressure (as with its own weight) shrinks in volume and gains in density. Water, on the other hand, is absolutely incompressible, and, although the pressure in the sea increases at the rate of one pound for every two feet we descend, the density of the water remains the same; consequently the penny continues to outweigh the water it displaces, and the coin sinks until it finds a solid resting place. The pressure of the water has no influence at all on the coin, acting as it does on all sides equally.

Decline of the Mustache.

Permission to wear a mustache was eagerly sought after in the middle of the last century. But now the virile decoration is discarded. Why? In those old days the Bank of England would not allow its employees to wear it and issued an order which might have come more appropriately from a bank of Ireland. It was to the effect that the mustache was not to be worn in business hours! A large drapery firm in London objected not only to the mustache, but to hair parted down the middle. There is more tolerance now. Men look younger when clean shaved. They are also more readable without the protection given by the mustache to the upper lip. If hearts can be worn on sleeves thoughts can be read on upper lips. But is it always wise to leave the legend unhidden? Men seldom like to be divined, as La Rochefoucauld remarked once and for all time.—London Express.

Courtaut the Wolf.

Paris has forgotten the time when it used to go in terror of the wolves which carried off women and children from the streets and even raided the graveyards. At one time they became so mad with desire for human flesh that in a single week they devoured fourteen persons, all between Montmartre and the gate of St. Antoine. On the vigil of St. Martin (says Grace James in "Joan of Arc") there was hunted and taken a horrible wolf, "which it was said had done more, and more cruelly, than many others put together. That day he was killed. He had no tail, and from that he was called Courtaut. There was as much talk about him as if he had been an outlaw of the woods or a cruel captain, and when he lived folk said to one another as they went forth to labor in the fields, 'Look out for Courtaut.' And on this day he was taken through Paris in a cart, dead, with his great jaws open, and all the people went to see, and they made holiday and rejoiced, because Courtaut could trouble them no more."

Rented Wedding Cakes.

There was something wrong with the cake, the baker said. It looked all right, and it smelled all right, but his artistic sense told him it would not taste all right.

"Then fix it up with an extra coat of icing and we will keep it for a renter," said the proprietor.

"Who in the world would rent a cake?" some one asked.

"Wedding parties," said he. "They want a big cake in the center of the table for show, but a cake of that size good enough for a wedding would cost more than they can afford to pay, so they order fine cake put up in individual boxes for the guests and use the bride's cake just as an ornament. They don't buy it; they rent it. Sometimes a cake is rented a dozen different times. After each wedding it is freshened up with a new coat of icing and looks as good as new for the next occasion. A good renter fetches about $3 a wedding."—New York Press.

Sarcastic Cabby.

A certain nobleman, who may be called Lord X., bears the reputation of being somewhat stingy in money matters. On a wet afternoon he hired a cab to take him to Victoria station. Arrived at the station, he handed the cabman a shilling and of course was met by the inevitable demand for an extra sixpence.

"Certainly not," said the other promptly. "You came the longest way as an excuse to extort money. Why didn't you go through St. James' park?"

The cabman saw he had no chance and said sneeringly:

"Cos St. James' park is closed. That's why."

"Nonsense," said the other sternly.

"It's right, though," was the grave reply. "They say that Lord X. dropped a shilling coming across the park last evening, and the gates are closed until they find it."—London Tit-Bits.
